

23° Scientific Meeting Online
COVID - 19 and Rare Diseases
April 22, 2021 (h 15.00 – 16.30 CET)
Istituto Superiore di Sanità (Rome, Italy)
Aula Pocchiari

The webinar will be in English

Introduction and Chairs

Silvio Brusaferrò, President of the Istituto Superiore di Sanità (ISS)

Luigi Bertinato, Head of the Scientific Secretariat to the President ISS

Annalisa Scopinaro, President of UNIAMO Federazione Italiana Malattie Rare

Domenica Taruscio, Director of the National Centre for Rare Diseases, ISS

Chronic and rare lung diseases during the pandemic of COVID-19

Beatriz Lara, MD, Respiratory Medicine Department, University Hospital Coventry and Warwickshire NHS Trust, Coventry, Warwickshire, UK

COVID-19 and rare diseases: the experiences of patients in Spain

Alba Ancochea Díaz, Elvira Martínez Jiménez, Federación Española de Enfermedades Raras - Fundación FEDER para la investigación.

COVID-19 and rare diseases: a global perspectives of diagnosis, research and care during emergency. The clinical research global program in rare diseases fellowship experience

Barbara Hugonin, MD, Maternal Child Department, USL Toscana Centro, researcher and geneticist Rare Diseases Institute, Children Nationwide Hospital, Washington, fellow Leadership in Pediatric Program

Discussion and conclusions

Domenica Taruscio, Director of the National Centre for Rare Diseases, ISS

Link to participate to the event: <https://meet.starleaf.com/4896746467/app>

If you wish to ask a question to speakers send a e-mail to: gacovid.rare@iss.it